

I support legislation/regulations which allow consumers to purchase individual cable stations rather than the present package system sold by cable companies. My cable bill is very very high, I only have interest in 8 or 10 stations, and I am forced to pay for all those stations which are of no interest to me.